

Guide to Setting Up VRChat

Hi guys!

Before you start!

You need a computer.

You do not need a super computer.

You need a mic.

You need to connect the mic to your computer.

You need an internet connection.

You do not need to pay. VRChat is free.

You do not need a VR Headset.

You need a keyboard and a mouse.

You could use a game controller.

You need to install Steam first in order to install VRChat.

IF you are using PC/Windows proceed to page 2.

IF you are using a Mac, Bootcamp into Windows and proceed to page 2.

IF you do not have Bootcamp. Sign up for a beta access for Geforce Now. Go to this link and proceed to page 2.

<https://www.nvidia.com/en-us/geforce-now/>

IF that does not work, buy a new pc computer with Windows. (I recommend a very expensive one).

IF you do not have any money go find a job.

IF you can't find a job, ask one of your teammates to stream his session on Mixer.

I was able to run VRChat using a Surface Pad Pro 4, even though it was way under the required specs because it is a tablet and not a laptop.

Click Create a new account.

3. Create new account.
Follow the instructions.

4. Log into Steam.
Type in your own account name and password.

5. Congratulations!
You have successfully got your Steam Store setup.

Zzz...

Setup VRChat

1. Run Steam.exe
Log into your account.

2. Search for VRChat.
Top right of page type VRchat in search.
Click VRChat.

3. Create new account.
Bottom of the screen you should see a "Add to Cart" where it says "Play Now".

4. Install.
Follow the instructions.

5. Download.
Click "Library" tab.
You should see VRChat downloading.
Once it is complete you can press "Play".
Just follow the steps and sign up for an account.
Remember to merge the Steam account with VRChat account. This will enable you to upload content for your group projects. There is a 2-5 active day wait period after the merge. You need to play a few mins for a couple days.

Fun.
